I want to say (for what it's worth) that advertising with you has been fantastic for my business and without it I wouldn't have been able to stay in business for as long as I have, as almost all of my work came from people seeing my advert. Compared to other companies I previously advertised with, your publication was by a long way the best value for money. To me it really showed how much trust local people put in the advertiser. I think it also shows that residents and businesses would be lost without it and I know where to look any time I need some work doing. I know I've been the one paying you, but it's been worth every penny, so thanks!
